

Lisa Worsham

Lisa Worsham is a Program Administrator with the Long Beach Unified School District, overseeing TK-5 Literacy Initiatives, Early Learning, and Literacy Intervention. After serving as the Principal of a large urban elementary school, she transitioned to the District's Office of Curriculum and Professional Development to lead several literacy initiatives during the post COVID era. One of these key initiatives involved guiding the district's shift toward structured literacy based on early reading accelerators, ensuring students become strong readers and critical thinkers. Lisa collaborates closely with principals, district and teacher leaders, and curriculum coaches to promote equitable access to high-quality curriculum and instruction, fostering culturally responsive practices that support the diverse needs of every student.
