

Grant Rivera

Grant Rivera has been the proud superintendent of Marietta City Schools (MCS) since 2016, overseeing 12 schools, around 8,900 students, and 1,200 staff. A career educator, he has experience as a principal, teacher, and coach. Dr. Rivera believes learning to read and write is one of life's most fundamental achievements and a leading indicator of future success. He leads MCS in setting a new standard for what it means to invest in literacy education.

With degrees from Northwestern and the University of Alabama, he's actively involved in education organizations and is committed to raising awareness and funds for pediatric cancer.
