

Katie Calamusa

Katie Calamusa brings 35 years of experience in elementary education to her work. She holds a Master of Science in Education with a concentration in reading, as well as a California Reading Specialist Credential. In addition, Katie is a CERI Certified Structured Literacy Dyslexia Interventionist, has earned Orton-Gillingham Comprehensive Certification from the Institute for Multi-Sensory Education (IMSE), and was honored as San Bernardino County Teacher of the Year in 2006.

Katie spent 24 years teaching kindergarten, 1st, and 2nd grades at Coyote Canyon Elementary. For the past decade, she has served as a Teacher on Special Assignment (TOSA), providing professional development in early literacy and numeracy to TK-2nd grade teachers in Central School District. Her passion lies in empowering primary educators with the tools, strategies, and resources necessary to implement structured literacy programs that effectively support the diverse needs of emergent and developing readers.
