

Jennifer Tamayo-Dopp

With 25 years of experience in elementary education, including three years as an Intervention Coordinator and the past six as a Teacher on Special Assignment (TOSA) at Central School District, Jennifer Tamayo-Dopp holds a Master's in Educational Administration and is a CERI Certified Structured Literacy Dyslexia Interventionist. Additionally, Jennifer has an Institute for Multi-Sensory Education (IMSE) Orton-Gillingham Certification. Passionate about instilling a love for reading in students and empowering educators, Jennifer is dedicated to coaching teachers in transitioning from balanced literacy to structured literacy to ensure Science of Reading-backed literacy instruction will reach all tiers of learners.