

Jamaica Ross

Jamaica Ross is a Program Specialist in the Office of Curriculum and Professional Development, bringing over 24 years of experience in education. Having served as a classroom teacher, Teacher on Special Assignment (TOSA), and coach, she is passionate about enhancing educational practices and supporting professional growth for educators. Jamaica supports K-5 teachers through a variety of structures, including large group meetings to grow the capacity of the leads, small cohort professional learning to support teachers, and on-site collaborative learning opportunities to bring the work together. In her office space, she leads 4 TOSAs, always centered on fostering a collaborative environment that positively impacts both teachers and students.
